

Global Whales Group is a company duly registered under the applicable laws of the United Arab Emirates, with its registered office located at SRTIP, University City – Sharjah (the “Company”). The Company does not provide any of the investment services listed in applicable financial regulations, does not act as a broker, and does not accept deposits.

The challenges offered by the Company simulate real market conditions using data sourced from financial markets. However, it is important to note that simulated trading does not fully replicate actual trading conditions. As of now, no consolidated statistical data is available regarding success rates or progression to the funded phase. Any performance achieved in a simulated environment is not a reliable indicator of future results.

Trading, even in a simulated environment, carries risks, including the potential partial or total loss of virtual capital. These challenges are intended for users who already possess trading experience and are not recommended for beginners.

The information available on this website is not intended for distribution or use by any person or entity in jurisdictions where such distribution or use would be contrary to local laws or regulations.

Any content published or shared by the Company or its affiliates is provided strictly for informational purposes only. It does not constitute:

- (a) investment advice;
- (b) an offer or solicitation to buy or sell any financial instruments; or
- (c) a recommendation, endorsement, or promotion of any product or service.

Testimonials published on the Company’s platforms do not reflect the full range of user experiences and are not indicative of future results. Any use of the information provided is entirely at the discretion and risk of the user. The Company, including its partners, representatives, agents, employees, and subcontractors, disclaims any liability for outcomes related to the use of such information.

The Company’s technological platform and market data feeds are powered by third-party liquidity service providers.

The Company strongly recommends that any individual interested in engaging in trading activities consult an independent financial advisor before making any related decision.
